Dear Nurse Leader, Facility Administrator/Executive Director,

We are inviting you to mark your calendars to send your Nurse leaders to the 33rd Annual National Association of Directors of Nursing Administration/Long Term Care, Inc. Conference. Our 2020 conference will be November 1-4, 2020 at The Conference & Event Center in Niagara Falls, NY with a pre-conference program on October 31st for Antibiotic Stewardship. Please visit our site at www.nadona.org for a full agenda. During this conference, nurse leaders from the entire U.S. will be able to network, receive tools and visit over 100 vendors displaying some of their newest products. They will also be able to gain knowledge and the skills to enable them to become certified in seven different topics; including Diabetes, Infection Prevention, Certified Director of Nursing, assisted living, LPN, Interact Champion. The reviews for many of these certifications will be held at conference for no additional cost!

The registration cost for the conference includes most of the breakfasts, lunches, snack breaks, and food in the vendor area. Also included are the first night reception, after the awards banquet reception, and one ticket for the annual awards banquet to be held on the Tuesday evening of the conference. If your Nurse leader has had a deficiency free survey, and or has been at the facility for 10 or more years, they are eligible for a discounted registration and an award on opening ceremony! See more information in the brochure, and or the NADONA website at www.nadona.org.

We will be awarding both nursing CE and Administrator NAB credits for attending the workshops and certification reviews at the conference. All of the certification reviews, and CE/NAB credits at the conference is included with the registration price.

The goals of this year’s NADONA National Conference are:

- Four days of education focusing on current issues of greatest importance to your residents and facilities, including Compliance, Clinical Practice, Reimbursement, Leadership, Operations and Human Resources.
- Up to 24 hours of nursing and administrator continuing education credit.
- Discussion of survey management, investigations, dealing with the new reimbursement system, while retaining staff and being ethical are several topics to be covered.
- Networking with key personnel within your state and across the US.
- Exhibits and product theaters that will highlight new and innovative products and services that can be used throughout your facility.
- Enjoy the Opening Night Reception on Sunday sponsored by NADONA and cheer on your colleagues at the Awards Banquet Tuesday evening. Both are included in your registration fee.
- Regenerate and refresh with renewed and new friendships.
What are the key benefits of attending the NADONA National Conference?

- Top-level, national speakers awarding both nurse and nursing home administrator continuing education
- An information-packed website (mobile friendly) and program guide for reference during the Conference
- Symposia to support new concepts, medications, tools and electronic enhancements to inspire and encourage the administration of the highest quality of care
- Pre-conference sessions that allow for additional certification
- Opportunities to network and build long-lasting friendships with other nurse leaders
- Session on the professions’ new and potential regulations, changes in policies, clinical techniques, research, tools, and quality improvements
- An opportunity to interact with approximately 100 exhibitors that provide products and services to the long-term care industry
- An awards banquet and first night reception to network with peers, vendors, the NADONA board, and other leaders in long-term care
- A preparation course to assist in studying for the NADONA Certified Director of Nursing Administration exam (CDONA) and the Infection Prevention certification exam. (IP-BC)

Attending the 2020 NADONA conference will nurture and assist with developing new nurse leaders, revitalize, refresh and energize seasoned nurse leaders, and allow these valuable team members to grow into the great and respected leaders of your communities and facilities!!
